These interclass meets are expected and the first meet, next Thursday afternoon, promises to furnish some

The dates of the two triangular meets have not been decided upon owing to a shift in the date of the northern Indiana meet. It was first scheduled for May 29, and Metzler had arranged the Goshen-Elkhart-South Bend meet for the 22nd. When the shift was made to May 22 it was necessary to plan other dates for the three cornered affair. These have not been arranged.

Two meets that should prove good exhibitions are those with the Notre Dame Preps, one indoor and one out door. Last year the Preps met de feat by the high schoolers in the in door affair, but on the occasion of the outdoor meet, which was staged two days after the northern Indiana meet not giving the men time to recover from its effects, they barely nosed out the locals. This year the Preps will be without the services of Fritch Bergman and McDonough, but never theless should put up a good fight A nucleus of veterans is left around with which to build the squad and prospects are bright for a successful
